Embassy, Manila, dated January 27, 1900.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE AMBASSADOR

INTERNAL POLITICAL SITUATION

January 24, 1900.

The political situation in the Philippines has been in a state of extreme tension since the revolution broke out in 1896. The revolutionaries, who are now known as the "Katipunan," have been active in the provinces of Cavite, Manila, and the surrounding areas. They have been successful in organizing a large number of followers, and they have been able to maintain a strong hold on the provinces of Cavite and Manila.
